

Seaham & District u3a yarnbomb local station

Seaham & District u3a yarnbomb local station

Seaham u3a's Knicky Knack Knitters create a crocheted and knitted display at Seaham railway station

Seaham & District u3a yarnbombed Seaham Railway Station to bring smiles to the community. The 'Knicky Knack Knitters' created a crocheted and knitted display based on the theme flowers and trains, with many references to the town's history.

Group member Linda says, 'It took nearly three hours, but the results were well worth the effort, it was a lot of fun and we all enjoyed every minute of it. As people came and went it was obvious that it was a huge success, questions were asked about our u3a and lots of interest was shown.

'A up the station and give people lots of pl

To hear more u3a news, sign up to our national newsletter.
Do you have a story about your u3a that you would like to share? Get in touch.